Ordinance No. 7-1-22 (6)

“All persons keeping chickens pursuant to the City of Verona Code of Ordinances shall obtain and continually maintain a chicken-keeping license per the requirements contained in the City Code of Ordinances. Any property for which a permit is issued for the keeping and raising of chickens shall be subject to inspection by the City upon reasonable notice. Violations of the provisions of this ordinance shall be corrected within a reasonable timeframe upon written notice of violation from the City. An approved permit may be revoked by the Zoning Administrator or City Clerk for failure to comply with the provisions of the Code of Ordinances. If a permit is revoked, the chickens shall be removed from the property within thirty (30) days. The City Clerk shall not renew any license of an operator that does not, within a reasonable timeframe, correct any deficiencies identified upon written notice from the City.”

Ordinance No. 7-1-22 (8)

“The issuance of a chicken-keeping license under this Section 7-1-22 does not override or invalidate any deed restrictions, covenants or other legal documents that may prevent a specific property or properties from maintaining, keeping, or raising chickens.”
